

Teaching and Learning

- The quality of teaching, support and leadership in the school leads to pupils making good progress in their work and achieving well.
- Teaching is consistently good or better and this is a significant reason why pupils make good progress through the school.
- Standards have risen every year for the last 3 years.
- Attainment is above average; challenging targets for 2007 were exceeded.
- The curriculum is good with excellent coverage of Literacy and Numeracy.
- Teaching and Learning are good; teachers plan lessons exceptionally well.
- ICT is used exceptionally well.

Children

- Pupils' behaviour is outstanding.
- Pupils enjoy coming to school because of the lively and interesting curriculum.
- The behaviour of boys and girls is excellent in class and around school.
- Boys are motivated to succeed.
- Pupils' personal development is outstanding.
- Outstanding care and support systems.
- They have outstanding preparation for the future.
- Pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development is outstanding.
- A significant strength is the positive attitudes it fosters in pupils.
- Excellent contribution to the community

KINGSMOOR SCHOOL OFSTED REPORT 2007

INSPECTION JUDGEMENTS
OVERALL EFFECTIVENESS	2
ACHIEVEMENTS AND STANDARDS	2
PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT AND WELLBEING	1
THE QUALITY OF PROVISION	2
LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT	2

Ofsted Judgement Scale

1	Outstanding
2	Good
3	Satisfactory
4	Inadequate

Overall Evaluation

- The School judges itself to be good and the inspection confirms this.
- Some aspects of the School's work are outstanding.
- There has been good achievement since the last inspection.
- The School provides good value for money.

Management of the School

- Leadership overall is good
- The School is well managed and runs smoothly.
- Good improvement since the last inspection.
- The Headteacher's leadership is outstanding.

To develop further

- The setting of short term targets for all pupils.
- Enrichment and creative activities in the curriculum.